A modern manifesto

MAHO

Drawn with dimensions that exude comfort, depth and modern elegance, the Maho Sofa is a study in lounging — a true retreat for days of slowing down, enhanced through loose cushions with down fill. Place the design together with the glass and marble layers of the Expose Table for a sincerely sophisticated sentiment.

Dedication to design across three generations

Starting as a small family workshop specialising in upholstery, the foundation stones of Wendelbo were laid in 1955. Six decades and three generations later, the story of the Danish family with a strong dedication to design continues to unfold and prosper. Today, Wendelbo is an international design company fusing uncompromising upholstery and complementing design icons.
